- D. The matters contained in this agreement and/or the exercise of any such rights of the board and not subject to further negotiations between the parties during the term of this agreement. The parties recognize that PA 112 of 1994 gives the board unrestricted subcontracting rights.

Article III. Rights of the Association

- A. Association representatives employed by the board shall have the right to use school buildings at reasonable hours for meetings, provided advance arrangements are made with the transportation supervisor and such fall within board policy. Any additional costs caused by the association's use of the building will be paid by the association.
- B. The employer will provide bulletin board space in the central location which may be used by the association for posting notices of the following types:
1. Notices of recreational and social events.
 2. Notice of elections
 3. Notices of results of elections.

4. Notices of meetings.
- C. Minutes of the board meetings are available in the administration office and may be reviewed by the association.

Article IV. Regular Part-Time Substitutes

- A. For the purposes of hiring priority only, regular part-time substitutes shall be credited with seniority when they have worked 115 days or more in a school year. Regular part-time substitutes shall be offered full-time positions based upon seniority, except in situations where an unsatisfactory evaluation has been received. Seniority shall be defined as the length of continuous service to the district as a part-time substitute and begins on the date of the 115th day worked. Full-time drivers will have the right to bid on vacancies before regular part-time substitutes are offered full-time positions.

Regular part-time substitutes will advance up the wage schedule. They must work 115 days per year to be an RPTS. If an RPTS works two years and does not reach 115 days per year working, they will return to the 1st step on the pay scale.

- B. The transportation supervisor shall inform the association when a temporary substitute has worked 115 days in a school year. Regular part-time substitutes may invoke the grievance procedure over any alleged violation in the offering of full time positions.
- C. Regular part-time substitutes shall be paid on step one of the pay scale and the mileage of the assignment. If ever hired on a full time basis they will begin at step two and shall be considered probationary employees as defined in Article IV.
- D. When substitutes are needed, regular part-time substitutes shall be called, in seniority order, before temporary substitutes. If a regular part-time substitute refuses two consecutive assignments, calling priority status may be lost.
- E. Articles in this contract will not apply to regular part-time substitutes unless specifically stated.
- F. Regular part-time substitutes working less than 115 days in two consecutive school years will become temporary substitutes.
- G. Field trips, extra runs, day and night time subbing will be offered to all full-time drivers even those who have not signed up for extra trips, or subbing before an RPTS will be asked.

- H. Regular part-time substitutes, scheduled to work on days that are canceled shall not be paid for the lost time.

Article V. Regular, Special and Extra Runs.

- A. Regular bus runs shall consist of picking up and delivering of students, stop to stop, along an established route, to and from school, at the discretion of the employer.
 - 1. Kindergarten/Noon runs shall consist of picking up and delivering students, stop to stop, along an established route, to or from school, at the discretion of the employer.
- B. Special runs shall be defined as trips that deliver students to and from specialty classes (E.G., MMCC, CTE, Pines Nursing Home) on a daily basis. They will be paid a minimum of one hour at the extra trip rate of pay from the time the run leaves until the time the run ends. Driver may be paid if using sick time during this run. Driver will not be paid if not driving or using sick or personal time for this run. Special runs shall be posted as vacancies as provided under Article X.
 - 1. Shuttle runs shall be defined as a route that delivers students to or from a connecting bus on a daily basis, to or from school, without stop to stop pick-up or drop-off, the mileage of the shuttle will be added to the mileage of the driver's regular run, shuttles will be posted as vacancies as provided by Article X, if no one bids, the superintendent or designee may assign, established shuttle runs may be expanded up to five (5) miles without posting.
 - 2. Drivers will be given 15 minutes for pre-trip inspections on all runs. Drivers must have a regular run to be eligible for special, shuttle, or kindergarten/noon runs unless no full-time driver signs for such runs. A driver shall be allowed only one special or kindergarten/noon run per year. A driver may have one or more shuttle runs in conjunction with any other run, so long as it does not interfere with their other runs.
- C. Mileage of all runs will be based up the SM 4159-1 daily transportation log. Should a dispute arise regarding the mileage and or time of a run, the supervisor and an association representative shall ride with the driver for purposes of verification using the vehicle normally assigned.
- D. Extra trips, including athletic trips, are those runs outside the regular bus run schedule. Extra trips shall include fifteen (15) minutes for pre-tripping and fifteen (15) minutes for post-tripping the bus. Extra trips shall be paid from pre-trip through post-trip at the extra trip rate. There will be a four (4) hour minimum on all extra trips that go on Saturday and/or Sunday, or on any non-school day.

Pre and post tripping procedures will be followed according to the GBDA handbook. Anyone not following the procedures may be subject to Article XX (Discipline of Employees) of this contract.

- E. A posting for extra trips shall be put up at the fall meeting. Those interested in taking extra trips must sign the posting prior to the first day of school. Any driver not signing the posting shall not be asked to take extra trips within the next twelve months unless no driver who signed the posting is available. All full-time drivers shall be asked before RPTS or temporary substitutes are asked.
- F. Extra trips will be assigned beginning with the most senior driver first. Hours of the trip will be kept (including pre-trip and post-trip time), and after all have had one (1) trip, the trips shall then be assigned to the low hour man keeping all hours as equal as possible.
- G. Drivers who turn down extra trips will be charged with the hours of that particular trip. Extra trip hours charged to each driver, whether taking the trip or refusing the trip, shall be only the hours that are actually to be paid at the extra trip rate. A driver who has refused five (5) assignments in succession shall be removed from the extra trip list. (An employee on workers compensation or sick leave when a medical determination is required will not be removed from the extra trip list if five (5) assignments are missed).
- H. Extra trips shall be posted in the transportation lounge on Thursday of the week previous to which the extra trips are to be taken.

Extra trips will be scheduled with the most efficient use of buses as possible. If buses show up and are not needed they will be returned to the bus garage. A one (1) hour show up time will be paid to the driver.
- I. A trip that is scheduled at the last minute will be assigned to the low hour driver interested. A driver who turns down an extra trip without 24 hour notice of the trip will not be charged with the hours of that trip.
- J. A chart shall be posted in the transportation lounge showing the extra trip hours for each driver and shall be updated weekly.
- K. Trading of extra trips may be done by drivers assigned to take the extra trips involved, if the trips are within the same seven (7) day period. The seven day period shall begin on Sunday morning and end on Saturday night. The trade is subject to approval by the transportation supervisor.

The deadline for trading of extra trips will be Monday at 8:30 a.m. following the previous Thursday afternoon posting.

- L. If extra trips remain unfilled, after asking ALL full-time drivers who have signed to take extra trips, all full-time drivers who have not signed to take extra trips, the trip will be assigned to the highest seniority RPTS driver. When no RPTS drivers are currently employed in the district, the unfilled extra trip will be assigned to the lowest seniority full-time driver available.
- M. Drivers who take an extra trip that causes them to miss their regular morning or afternoon run shall be paid for the hours of the regular run at their regular rate of pay. Extra trip pay shall begin after the hours of the regular run have been exceeded. There will be no overlapping or pyramiding of the time paid.
- N. Extra trip accumulated hours shall be kept from the first trip of one school year to the first day of school the next year.
- O. Drivers who have kindergarten runs or other special daily runs shall not be allowed to take an extra trip that will interfere with the run.
- P. When a regular full-time driver can and does sub daily on a regular route, his/her hours of subbing will be kept but not used to average in a new hire, or average someone who comes back from a paid leave or an unpaid leave.
 - 1. An employee who becomes full-time during the school year and that wishes to take extra trips will sign the extra trip sheet at the time he/she becomes full-time. He/she will be credited with the average number of hours already taken and be put in rotation from that point.
 - 2. A full-time employee who returns from a paid leave who has already signed the trip sheet that wishes to take extra trips will be credited with the average number of hours already taken and be put in rotation from that point.
 - 3. A full-time employee who returns from an unpaid leave who has already signed the trip sheet who wishes to take extra trips will be credited with the highest number of hours already taken and be put in rotation from that point.
- Q. District financed summer jobs will be offered by seniority and qualifications.
- R. If, and when, students are transported by school owned vehicles, bargaining unit members will drive.
- S. Employees may take one (1) guest with them on extra trips if there is room on the bus. If the guest happens to be a certified bus driver, the bus driver that is assigned to the trip must drive the trip.

- T. Unless directed otherwise, drivers will have no responsibilities or duties during a layover time. The buses will remain at the assigned location except with permission from the supervisor prior to leaving on the trip.
- U. The letter of agreement between the Administration and transportation regarding the minimum number of students to be transported on buses will no longer be in effect. The district will determine the most efficient way to transport students to and from special trips including athletics.

Article VI. Subbing on Day/Night Runs

- A. Full-time employees interested in subbing on day or night time runs shall sign the posting sheet prior to the first day of school and shall be paid on their own step for the mileage of the route. Employees who become full-time during the school year or return from a leave shall be placed on the sub list in the same manner as the extra trip list in article XX, Sections Q and R.

Full-time drivers who sub on any newly created full- or part-time monitors position shall be paid on Step 1 of the bus monitor salary schedule. Bus monitors who sub on another route will be paid at their current bus monitor rate.

The order of preference for bus monitor subbing shall be: bus monitor by seniority, those employees signing to sub as a monitor, full-time bus drivers by seniority, and other substitutes, providing that subbing, combined with the employee's regular hours, does not put that employee over 40 hours for that week.

- B. An employee shall not sub on a day run if it interferes with any of their contracted daily runs.
- C. A full-time employee shall be allowed only one sub assignment within one school day, unless a sub assignment is for the same route (example adult ed.) and for not more than five (5) consecutive days, unless no other full-time driver is available.
- D. Subbing by full-time drivers shall be assigned by seniority first. After each full-time driver who has signed the posting has completed one sub assignment, subbing will be assigned by the number of runs taken. Drivers who turn down a subbing run will be charged with that run, regardless of when the driver is asked all drivers will be kept as equal in sub runs as possible. Accumulated sub runs shall be kept for the nine (9) month period beginning the first day of the current school year until the last day of the current school year. A new posting shall be put up for summer subbing with runs accumulating for the three (3) month period for the summer. A driver who has refused five (5) assignments in succession shall be removed from the sub list. A run that consists of pick up and take home, from stop to stop, within the same day shall be considered as two (2) separate subbing assignments, and drivers shall be charged with the runs accordingly (e.g., Adult Ed.).

- E. A chart of day and night time subbing shall be posted in the transportation lounge and updated weekly.
- F. In the case of emergency or notification of a bus needed within less than one (1) hour, the transportation supervisor may call the quickest available employee to sub on that route. The trip shall be charged to the employee taking the trip and their turn shall be adjusted accordingly.
- G. If a full-time employee is not available, a substitute shall be called.

Article VII. Employee Responsibilities

- A. All employees shall fully, faithfully and properly perform the duties of their employment.
- B. Employees shall not engage in association activities during their working hours.
- C. It is the responsibility of every employee to inform the supervisor in writing of any change of name, address, telephone number, or any other information that would affect his/her job responsibilities.
- D. The association will notify the employer of any changes of association stewards within five (5) working days to the superintendent's office.
- E. It shall be the responsibility of any employee to attend any workshop, conference, schooling, Etc., required by the state or the employer. Employees shall be paid at the extra trip rate.
- F. Any meeting with the supervisor and parents and employee will be paid in fifteen minute increments at the extra trip rate of pay. An employee will be guaranteed the first fifteen (15) minutes but not more than forty-five (45) minutes.
- G. All buses must be stored in the bus garage at the end of the day.
- H. A copy of the sign-up sheets shall be given to the Secretary of the GBDA at the end of all postings. To include: extra trips, day subbing, monitoring, new runs and new assignments.

Article VIII. Drug Use and Testing

- A. The board will comply with the provisions of the Omnibus Transportation Employee Testing Act of 1991 and the board's anti-drug and alcohol abuse policy. Compliance disputes are not subject to the grievance procedure.
- B. All time spent by an employee in testing and necessary travel time directly to/from the testing site will be paid at the extra trip rate, if the time is over and above the regular route time.

When a driver misses all, or part, of a regular run because of testing, that driver will be paid either the extra trip rate or what would have been paid on the regular run, whichever is higher. If a driver is still employed by the district after testing positive, pay for any follow-up testing will not be provided unless required by a medical doctor to make a final determination as to the accuracy of the positive test.

- C. Employer will pay for all Hepatitis B series shots for all employees requesting to get them.
- D. If a driver has to miss a scheduled doctor's appointment due to mandatory drug testing and a charge is made for late cancellation the employee shall notify the employer. The employer will be given a chance to speak with the physician in an effort to alleviate the charge; however, if the employee is required to pay the fee, he/she shall be reimbursed upon the presentation of a paid receipt.

Article IX. School Cancellation

- A. In the event school is canceled due to inclement weather or conditions not within the control of the district, the following procedures will apply:
 - 1. Employees shall not be required to report to work.
 - 2. Employees will receive their regular rate of pay for regular contracted runs, during that day in the event the district makes up such days, employees will be expected to work on those days for no additional pay. If an employee has been paid and does not drive on the make-up day, the amount they were previously paid will be deducted from their last pay of the year. Hourly employees may use sick time to receive regular pay for this day. If weather days are made up no additional payment will be made. Special runs will represent 1/3 of a sick day used.

3. Monitors will be excluded from pay on inclement weather days unless school is cancelled after the bus has left the school grounds. In that event the monitor will be paid the hours that were actually worked. Employees may use sick time to receive regular pay for this day. If weather days are made up no additional payment will be made. If an employee has been paid and does not work on the make-up day, the amount they were previously paid will be deducted from their last pay of the year.
 4. If an employee is scheduled to take a sick day, personal day or a no pay day and a snow day or act of God day is called, they will not be charged for the day off.
- B. Any instance that shall cause an employee to work more than 170 days, shall result in the employee being paid for time actually worked. Employees driving runs to other districts or sites which are scheduled for more than 170 days will accept the contractual amount of salary by accepting the position. Employees driving part of their runs on canceled days, that are required to be made up, shall be paid two hours at the extra trip rate. Pay for these days will be added to their last pay of the year.

Article X. Seniority

- A. New employees hired in the unit shall be considered as probationary employees for the first sixty (60) working days of their employment. When an employee finishes the probationary period, by accumulating sixty (60) working days of employment, the employee shall be entered on the seniority list of the unit and shall rank in seniority from that first day of the current employment as a full-time employee, there shall be no seniority among probationary employees, employees hired into the unit prior to September 1, 1993, shall rank in seniority from their most recent date of hire.
- B. Regular part-time substitutes (RPTS) hired in the unit as full-time employees shall be considered as probationary employees the first thirty (30) working days of their employment. When an RPTS finishes the probationary period, by accumulating thirty (30) working days of employment, the RPTS shall be entered on the seniority list of the full-time unit and shall rank in seniority from their 115th day, thereby becoming RPTS.
- C. The association shall represent probationary employees for the purpose of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, and other conditions of employment as set forth in the articles of this agreement. Probationary employees may be discharged, disciplined or laid off for any reason except lawful association activity without recourse to the grievance procedure.

- D. Seniority shall be defined as the length of continuous service to the district from the employee's last date of hire as a full-time employee. Seniority will not be prorated.
- E. Seniority shall not accrue while on layoff or unpaid leave of absences, seniority shall not continue to accumulate while on unpaid leave for more than 60 calendar days.

Article XI. Loss of Seniority

An employee shall lose seniority for the following reasons only:

- A. The employee quits or retires.
- B. The employee is discharged and the discharge is not reversed through the grievance procedure set forth in this agreement.
- C. The employee is absent for three (3) consecutive days without notifying the employer unless there are mutually agreed extenuating circumstances. After such absence, the employer shall send written notification to the employee at the last known address that the employee has lost seniority, and employment has been terminated.
- D. The employee does not return to work when recalled from layoff as set forth in the recall procedures.
- E. The employee obtains a leave of absence under false pretenses.
- F. The employee does not return from leaves of absence. (Shall be treated the same as (C) above).
- G. The employee is laid off for a period of time which exceeds his/her seniority in the district.

Article XII. Vacancies and Transfers

- A. A vacancy shall be defined as an unfilled position previously held by an employee that the employer intends to fill or when a new position is created. Temporary vacancies of up to ninety (90) calendar days or less shall not be considered a vacancy as defined by this article and shall not be subject to the conditions set forth. In addition, vacancies created by personal illness leaves and maternity leaves as provided under Article XI, Section A. shall not be considered a vacancy.

- B. If an employee is transferred to a position under the employer not included in the bargaining unit and within six (6) months thereafter is transferred to an open position to have been retained and accumulated while working in the position to which the employee is transferred for the purpose of all seniority rights and benefits provided for in this agreement; provided, however, if an employee is transferred back into the bargaining unit as above defined after six (6) months the employee shall retain seniority as of the date of transfer to the position outside of the bargaining unit, but shall not accumulate any seniority for the time working in the position outside of the bargaining unit, except for the purpose of any fringe benefits provided for in this agreement.
- C. When a vacancy exists within the bargaining unit and the employer decides to fill it, notice of such vacancy shall be posted on the bulletin board at least three (3) working days prior to filling such vacancy or position. Vacancies are to be posted in the following manner: the type of work, the starting date, the rate of pay, and the qualifications. Necessary qualifications shall be established by the employer, and will include certification when appropriate, interested employees shall apply in writing to the superintendent or his designee. The employer will not be required to fill a position which becomes vacant after March 15, of that existing school year. However, any position which becomes vacant prior to March 16, of that existing school year will be filled within thirty (30) school days.
- Any position that becomes vacant or newly created vacancies during the summer months will be filled in the following manner. The superintendent or his designee shall notify each member as to the vacancies. This can be done by either a phone call talking directly to the member, not to the answering machine, or by U.S. mail.
- D. Resulting vacancies which are created by internal transfers will be filled in the following manner: Drivers and monitors will bid on runs according to seniority at a meeting called specifically for this purpose. In the case of a driver's or monitor's inability to attend due to illness or other legitimate reason, as determined by the supervisor, a signed intent stating which routes the driver would be interested in, should they become available, may be submitted prior to the meeting.
- E. Requests for a transfer to a different position shall be made in writing and filed with the superintendent or his designee.
- F. Any employee who fills a vacancy by voluntary transfer shall not be allowed another transfer within the same route classification as defined in Article 5, during the current school year unless such transfer is in the best interest of the district as determined by the employer.

- G. At the option of the board, in the case of inability to handle the new position, the transportation supervisor shall return the employee to their previous position; this matter is not subject to the grievance procedure.
- H. An involuntary transfer will be made in case of emergency or to prevent disruption of the transportation program.
- I. When filling a vacancy, the board will give weight to length of time in the district, experience, and work record.
- J. District financed summer jobs will be offered in accordance with seniority and qualifications.
- K. If an employee accepts a vacancy that is less than full-time (5 days a week) and a full-time vacancy opens within the same school year, the employee may bid on the full-time position.
- L. Employees may not add part-time positions to their regular schedule which would place them over (40) forty hours per week.

Article XIII. Layoff and Recall

- A. The word "Layoff" means a reduction in the working force.
- B. When a reduction in work force occurs, employees on probation with the least seniority in the job classification affected will be the first to be laid off. Thereafter, layoffs will be made according to seniority and qualification. Full-time employees on lay off shall, upon application, be granted priority status on the substitute list based on seniority.
- C. Whenever an employee is to be laid off, the board shall notify the employee and the association within 7 calendar days of the layoff; such notice will not apply in the case of a work stoppage by another bargaining unit in the district.
- D. When the working force is increased after a layoff, employees shall be recalled according to seniority and qualifications. Notice of recall shall be sent to employees at their last known address by registered or certified mail. Recall rights are restricted to non-probationary employees, and will differ for each employee based upon the number of years said employee has worked in the district. By way of example, an employee with 10 years of seniority will have recall rights for 10 years.
- E. If employees fail to notify the employer in writing within five (5) working days from receipt of notice of recall, they may be considered as a quit, thus terminating their employment exceptions may be made by agreement between the employer and the association.

- F. When individual full-time positions are eliminated or reduced by two (2) pay brackets or more, and there are no vacancies of larger or equal mileage, the affected employee may bump the lowest seniored full-time employee in their classification. The lowest seniored employee shall then be placed first on the seniority list of the regular part-time substitutes, thereby, being first in line for the next available position, and shall not be considered laid off. There shall be no bumping across classifications.
- G. Assignments of regular routes shall be made prior to the beginning of each school year according to the vacancy procedure; no employee shall be bumped if they were regularly assigned to a route at the end of the previous school year, except as stated in part F. above.

Article XIV. Unpaid Leaves of Absence

A. Unpaid Leave

- 1. Military Leave. Employees who enter active military service of the United States shall have such reemployment rights as may be provided under the applicable federal statutes in effect at the time.
- 2. Personal Leave. An employee may be granted a personal leave of up to ninety (90) calendar days without pay, but such leave shall not be to seek or secure employment elsewhere. An employee wishing a personal leave of absence (including unpaid days off) shall apply in writing to the employer stating the reason for the leave, such personal leaves shall be available for association business purposes in accordance with the same terms that the employer considers in deciding whether to grant personal leaves for other purposes; the employer will not discriminate against such request because the leave in question is desired for association business. The granting of such personal leaves is discretionary with the employer, is not subject to the grievance procedure, and it is understood that the employer will grant such request only when the employer determines that the services of the employee are not required by the employer; provided, however, that association witnesses in an arbitration hearing shall be entitled to unpaid leave to attend such hearing, the employer may extend such leaves if the employee requests an extension in writing at least five (5) days prior to the expiration of the original leave or extension. Once any personal leave is approved, the employee is entitled to take that leave, absent bona fide emergency.

3. Personal Illness. An employee whose incapacitation extends beyond the time compensated under Article XII, Section A, shall be placed on an unpaid leave for up to one year from the last day the employee received a paid sick leave day. The employee must provide a physicians statement reflecting the employee is unable to return to work. The board may request an employee to undergo a medical examination at the expense of the board. During the leave, the employee's position will be filled by a substitute. Upon notice from the employee's physician that the employee is capable of returning to work and assuming his/her regular duties, the employee shall be returned to his/her regular position.

B. Partially Paid Leave

Jury Duty Leave. Employees chosen for jury duty shall be granted a leave of absence for such period as their duty requires, an employee who is summoned and who reports for jury duty as provided by applicable law shall be paid by the employer an amount equal to the difference between the amount of wages, excluding overtime, the employee would have earned by working straight-time hours for the employer on a day on which he/she would otherwise have been scheduled to work for the employer, and the jury duty fee paid to him/her by the court for that day.

If an employee reports for jury duty but is officially excused in time to return to work two (2) hours or more hours prior to the end of his/her shift, he/she shall be required to report to work as soon as possible after being excused from jury duty on that day.

In order to receive jury duty payment an employee must notify the employer immediately upon being summoned for jury duty, and must furnish satisfactory evidence that he/she reported for or performed jury duty on the days for which he/she claims payment. The employee may also be required to furnish evidence as to the time he/she reported and was excused and the amount of jury duty pay due from the court for the time in question.

- C. Seniority shall not continue to accumulate while on unpaid leave of more than 60 calendar days.
- D. Benefits will be lost after 10 days of no pay during any given month during the school year. No benefits will be paid during the summer if benefits were lost in the month of May.

Article XV. Paid Leave

- A. First-year full-time employees and full-time employees who have exhausted all sick leave, except those on unpaid leave of absence or layoff will be granted one (1) sick leave day per month during the month worked for the district, in order to receive the one day per month credit, the employee must work at least ten (10) days during the month,

All other full-time employees shall be credited with ten (10) days per school year of sick leave. Sick days will be prorated for any unpaid leave days taken during that school year.

The unused portion of yearly sick leave allowance shall accumulate up to a maximum of one hundred (100) days, upon accumulation of 100 days; no further current year allowance will be credited.

- B. Sick leave shall be granted to employees incapacitated from the performance of their duties due to sickness, pregnancy, or injury.
- C. Full-time employees who have accumulated forty (40) or more sick days, may take a cumulative maximum of five (5) days per year for illness of a mother, father, or member of the family residing in the employee's household and requiring the care and attendance of the employee, the required care must be such as would be prescribed by a physician or required for incompetence or incapacitation of the relative requiring care.
- D. Medical verification of illness may be required where an alleged pattern of absences exceeds five (5) days.

When an employee is off on paid sick leave for three (3) consecutive days or more, a doctor's permission slip may be required to return to work.

Verification for a leave less than (3) days may be required if there is reason to suspect abuse or if the employee has shown a pattern of abuse. The district reserves the right to send an employee to a district-appointed physician or other qualified professional personnel if questions arise concerning an absence of fitness for continued service.

- E. It is the responsibility of each employee to report unavailability for work prior to their normal starting time. Each employee shall at the time of reporting absence state the reason for absence, where the employee may be reached, and the anticipated length of absence.
- F. Any employee who willfully violates or misuses this sick leave policy or who misrepresents any statement or condition under said policy shall be subject to discipline up to and including discharge.
- G. Leaves of absence with pay not chargeable to the employee's sick leave allowance shall be granted as follow:

2. After one year of service, one personal leave day with pay shall be granted each year. Drivers/ monitors working forty-seven (47) weeks shall be granted two (2) personal leave days per school year. An employee taking a personal leave shall file a notice of the intent to take such day with the supervisor at least five (5) days prior to the date of such leave. Such notice shall include a statement of the reason for such leave.

Personal leave shall not be used for:

- A. The day before or the day after a holiday or vacation period unless agreed to by management.
- B. Seeking new employment or working a second job.

Days will be granted on a "first come, first serve" basis and if qualified substitutes are available.

- H. Workers' compensation: An employee receiving worker's compensation pay and electing to receive supplemental pay will provide copies of check receipts to the district within the (10) days of receiving check. The employer will pay the difference between worker's compensation and the employee's regular weekly expendable income for a period not to exceed the number of days of his/her sick leave accumulation with each day so compensated at one-third (1/3) of a day sick leave.

Article XVI. Longevity

- A. After 15 years of service, on the employees seniority date, full-time employees shall receive a one time lump sum payment of six hundred fifty dollars ($650.00) and each year thereafter, until the 20th year.
- B. After 20 years of service, full-time employees shall receive a one time lump sum payment of eight hundred dollars ($800.00) and each year thereafter, while employed as a full-time employee. The payment referenced in section A does not apply after 20 years of service.

- C. In determining the number of years a full-time employee has completed, unpaid leaves of absence, substitute service, terminations and other time spent on inactive employment status shall be subtracted from total years of service for longevity purpose. Longevity will not be prorated except in the case of a discharge.
